

Young dancers head to international competition

The Senior Team from Power of Dance Studio, Green Bay, has been selected to represent the United Performing Association (UPA) at the U.S. All Star Federation and International All Star Federation Dance Worlds competition on April 30 and May 1 at Disney World in Florida. The team will present the hip-hop routine that earned it a third-place win at the recent UPA Americup National Dance competition in Minneapolis.

It is a first for any team in the area. It is given to teams who score high and also receive the judges' votes.

Members of the team that also took seventh in Senior Jazz, are Paige Bunkelman, Alyssa Busjahn, Kaley Campen, Mackenzie Carlson, Renne Castner, Kaeli Fox,

DIAN PAGE
People

Samantha Greaves, Robyn Hjalmsquist, Paige Holterman, Alexis Krusic, Sam Luebke, Madie Mindock, Becca Polum, Monique Rosteing, Lauren Stefonek and Brit-tany Temple.

More than 55 youth from Power of Dance recently competed in the Americup competition.

Notre Dame senior Rosteing came in second place in the nation for her solo lyrical dance performance in the All American Super Star Academic and Talent Competition.

Other honors went to the following: Nicole Petcka,

Pulaski High School, sixth in the Junior Division, and Lily Mae Wiesler, Suamico Elementary, 10th overall in the All American Youth Division; and third, Youth Performer of the Year; Wiesler and Ava Jamir, first, National Champions in Youth Small Group; Kelsey Swanson, fifth, Senior Performer of the Year; Greaves, fifth, Teen Performer of the Year; Hjalmsquist, ninth, Teen Performer of the Year; Holterman and Arianna Schmidt, seventh Senior Small Group; Kick Team, fourth, Senior Open Division; Contemporary Team, fifth, Senior Open Division.

Also, Junior Team, fifth in Junior Pom and sixth in Junior Jazz; Youth Team, fourth, Youth Hip Hop, and first in Youth Pom. The Youth Team was also select- ed to compete in the Grand Champion finals, earning second place for their pom routine.

The All Stars are coached by Theresa Kubalak, Elizabeth Powers, Tanya Klanchar and Danielle Lohuis.

■ Tom Hazen, chef at Bellevue Independent and Assisted Living, is one of four chefs selected from the 14 Wisconsin CRL Senior Living Communities to compete in the 2011 Chopped Culinary Challenge in Neenah.

The challenge will be held from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday at Island Shores Independent and Assisted Living and is open to the public.

The contestants will develop impromptu dishes using fresh, all-natural ingredients that support the dietary needs of CRL's residents. They will be given four ingredients per round to create an appetizer, entree and dessert in the contest that will follow the format of "Chopped" on the Food Network.

■ With 700-plus supporters, more than $91,000 was raised at the 33rd annual Bowl for Kids' Sake benefiting Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeastern Wisconsin. Participants bowled as an individual or a five-person team at Ashwaubenon Bowling Alley. The theme was "Classic TV and Movies," with many supporters dressing up as their favorite characters. If you have news about local people, call Dian Page on the People line at (920) 391-9939, or write People, Green Bay Press-Gazette, P.O. Box 23430, Green Bay, WI 54305-3430. Include a picture if possible.

Tuesday, March 29, 2011