

Dress Rehearsal/ Spring Production/ Ticket Information

April 29th and 30th - Dress Rehearsal Information

The Dress Rehearsal Schedule IS NOT the same as the performance line-ups. We are aware that some of you may have conflicts throughout the week. We did our best to accommodate as many students as possible. If you are aware in advance that you are unable to make the rehearsals, please let us know as soon as possible. All schedules can be found on our website: www.powerofdance.com. Click the link on our home-page.

Arrive at the Meyer Theatre @ your class(es) specified time, with all costumes and shoes! Hair and make-up should be done as if it were the actual performance. Doors for the Dress Rehearsals will open at 4:30pm. Staff may be in the building, although will not be able to let anyone in earlier than 4:30pm due to Meyer Theatre policy. If your child is in only one performance class, please come dressed in costume and have them change into their dance shoes once at the Meyer Theatre. For this day only, please come through the FRONT doors of the Meyer Theatre, and wait in the main seating section (Orchestra seating) until we call your son/daughter's class for stage time. After their performance on-stage, the students (and parents if you would like) will be shown where their dressing room is located for the performance nights. Once students are finished with all of their 'stage times', they are dismissed to their parents in the main auditorium.

Each class will have a maximum of 10 minutes on stage (with the exception of ballet medleys). This ensures that each class has the opportunity to go through their routine 2 times if need be.

Students are allowed to leave after their stage time if they are not scheduled to rehearse on-stage again. As long as our students follow directions and are ready when called, we anticipate things going smoothly. In the past, some of our rehearsals have run early; whereas some classes only needed one run-through. Please be prepared if this happens again. In the event that there may be some snags, which may lengthen our time at rehearsal, please send your child(ren) with homework, puzzles, etc. Please make sure your child's NAME is on all items that are brought. The POD and the Meyer Theatre are not responsible for lost or stolen items.

You are allowed to videotape your child the day of the rehearsal. There will be NO videotaping OR flash photography allowed during the actual shows. POD will have a videographer (Parkway Productions) and a photographer (Kathleen Caylor Photography) on hand for ALL of the performances so families can simply sit back and enjoy the show(s). DVD's will be for sale following each show and order forms will be available on-site at the Meyer Theatre throughout all the performances. Kathleen Caylor Photography will post all of the still shots on her website for proofing and ordering following all of the performances.

PARKING: Parking is available in the ramp (corner of Washington and Cherry), on the street, or in Chase Bank parking lot. Street and Chase parking are free after 6:00 pm.

 EACH Dance Expressions class, and all solos/duets/trios/small groups are in ONE show. All regular classes are in two (2) of the four (4) shows.

ALL PERFORMERS, except Dance Expressions*, ENTER THROUGH THE BACK DOOR OF THE MEYER, LOCATED ON THE CORNER OF WALNUT AND WASHINGTON STREETS, across from the parking ramp. NO PARENTS ARE ALLOWED IN THIS DOOR WITH THEIR CHILDREN. All parents, relatives, guardians, visitors, etc. MUST use the front door. There will be POD staff members and volunteers at the back door to direct the students (or escort the little ones) to their appropriate dressing room. There will also be parents and volunteers in each dressing room for supervision and assistance with costume changes.

All dancers need to arrive at the Meyer Theatre for performances with hair and makeup done for their first routine. Shows will begin promptly at their respective times. In which case, please remember that the kids have time to spare. We would like them to be prepared to wait. Books, puzzles, ipods (all labeled with names of course) are welcome backstage. We estimate that the entire recital will be approximately 2 ½ - 3 hours long. (Again, provided things go smoothly☺) Parents can attend as many shows as you would like and are NOT required to attend every show your children are in; however, you will need to drop off and pick up your children promptly if you are not in attendance for the entire program. Front doors will open at the end of the show so you can enter and pick up your child if needed.

Dance Expressions ONLY– Can be dropped off at the main entrance to the Meyer. There will be a ‘check in’ on the second floor. D.E. WILL BE dismissed at the intermission, also on the 2nd floor. This will be approximately half way through each production. Please DO NOT pick up your child early. If you plan on staying for the remainder of the show(s), you will have to purchase a ticket for your child/dancer in order to re-enter the main auditorium with your dancer. This can be done ahead of time. If you, or the person picking up your child, did not purchase a ticket to attend the show, you will be asked to leave following your child’s dismissal. ONLY children 2yrs and younger are allowed to sit on a parents lap during the program(s).

All other students will be dismissed AFTER the entire program in the auditorium.

Students need to ‘check out’ with their class supervisor prior to leaving the building. This is to ensure each child is accounted for and not going home with anyone other than who they came with. If you are sending your child/ren home with another family, please send your child along with a note stating who they are to be released with so that the class supervisors know.

* ABSOLUTELY NO PARENTS OR VISITORS ARE ALLOWED BACKSTAGE PRIOR TO, FOLLOWING, OR DURING PERFORMANCES! THIS IS TO ENSURE THE SAFETY OF THE STUDENTS, VOLUNTEERS, AND STAFF. ANY VIOLATIONS ARE STRICKLY PROHIBITED AND SECURITY WILL BE NOTIFIED IMMEDIATELY! ****

Out of respect for the Meyer Theatre staff, we ask that if you take pictures after the performance, you do so quickly. Many of the Meyer Theatre staff are volunteers and would like to be timely in getting home to their own families.

*For you and your family's convenience, flowers, refreshments, and studio attire will be sold at the Meyer Theatre.

Any other questions please contact the studio at 920-661-9212 or Theresa at theresakubalak@gmail.com

The dancers do not need a ticket the nights they are performing due to that they are backstage with their classes and a chaperone for the entire program. Other studios may do this differently, yet we have been praised by the Meyer Theatre staff on how well we keep track of our kids and our security. So for those shows your dancer is in, he/she will be back with the other dancers. You don't need to attend the shows if you'd prefer not to; however, if you do, you will need a ticket. All the seats/tickets are reserved seating. If you are just simply dropping off your dancer with the chaperones and leaving until he/she is finished, then that is fine to. You will not need a ticket just to pick up your dancer at the end of each program.
